Pushpa Mahto

Frontend Developer(React)

Professional Summary

Hello, I am Pushpa Mahto, a passionate web developer who loves coding and experimenting with creative projects. With strong skills in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React, I create dynamic and responsive web applications. My expertise extends to backend development using RESTful APIs and Node.js, allowing me to build robust and efficient server-side solutions. I focus on writing clean, efficient code and continuously strive to improve my skills. A quick learner and natural problem solver, I thrive in challenging environments and enjoy finding innovative solutions to complex problems.
